Parking Information: Unfortunately there is no car parking permitted at the church environs, however there are free car parks nearby, one at Toppesfield Hall, at the end of the Market Place, and two in Magdalen Road, the parallel road to the High Street.

After the lecture programme, why not stay in the town for lunch at the numerous places to eat, and then enjoy looking at our fine range of buildings throughout the town.

These talks are arranged in memory of the late John Bloomfield who for many years devoted time, energy and whatever else he felt was needful to promote Hadleigh, its Church and wider interests. We seek to preserve and build upon that legacy.
